Dear Mr. Nelson:

In response to your request, a copy of our catalogue showing prices and shipping information was mailed to your attention.

To date, we have not received a reply as to whether or not this material was received by you.

Would you be kind enough to return this letter with a short memo at the bottom of this page, advising us whether or not you received the catalogue. Comments pertaining to any of our products would be appreciated.

Thanking you in advance, I remain

Sincerely,

LINEAR POLYETHYLENE BUSHINGS and BEARINGS

This new linear—Polyethylene Glass Ball Bearing is initially less expensive than stainless steel Ball Bearings and have a greater life expectancy through their self cleaning and polishing qualities. They also resist caking.

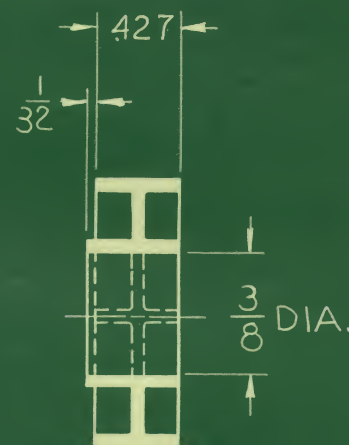

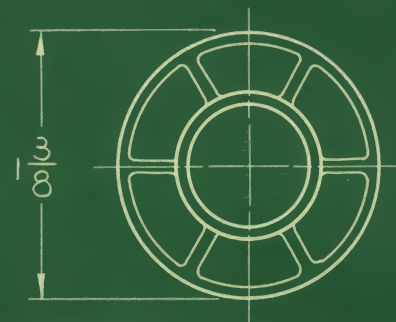

Linear Polyethylene Bushings are self-lubricating for an easier—smoother ride.
